

PROSPERITY DENVER FUND

PDF has approved alternative financial need measures that may be used to determine scholar eligibility for reimbursement if a scholar has not completed or is not eligible to complete a FAFSA.

PDF has approved the following alternative financial need measures:

1. Eligibility for any of the following public benefits:
 - Free and Reduced-Price Lunch
 - Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) Benefits
 - Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) Benefits
 - Medicaid
 - Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Disability Benefits
 - Section 8 Housing Vouchers
 - Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) Benefits
2. A household income that is too low to require a Federal Income Tax Filing
3. A total household annual income at or below these guidelines:

Household Size	Annual Household Income
1	$38,280
2	$51,720
3	$65,160
4	$78,600
5	$92,040
6	$105,480
7	$118,920

For each additional person, add	$13,440
--	----------